Questions 16-20

Read the email to Marie from her friend Diana.

Circle the correct answer A, B or C.

Hi Marie

I missed you at school today. I heard you had to go to the doctor. I remember that, on the way home yesterday, you said you'd hurt your leg in the playground. I hope it's OK.

We had a test in history today, but it was easy. And we watched a film about Africa in geography – we were supposed to go out on a trip but the minibus broke down.

And science was great! We did an experiment where we had to run upstairs then count how many times our heart beat in a minute. For homework we have to look at the picture on page 22 and do the questions underneath. That's in Chapter 3, the one about the body.

Now it's the weekend! I've got to buy some new shoes tomorrow – we can pick you up afterwards and you could hear my new CD? My mother and father are going out so we can play it really loud!

Hope you can come.

Diana

Hi!

I've just got back from England. My Dad had some work in Manchester, so we all flew to London, then Mum and I stayed there in a hotel near Oxford Street while Dad was away working.

Our hotel was near the British Museum, though we didn't have time to go. But we went to some department stores, which Mum enjoyed, and to some music shops, which she didn't like!

I passed a famous football player on Oxford Street, but I couldn't take a photograph of him because my camera was broken. I wanted to go to a football match, but there weren't any tickets left.

We went to the zoo, and to Buckingham Palace, and to the theatre to see a musical. I enjoyed everything, especially the musical.

I got you a present. I hope you'll like it – it's a really exciting story and it'll help you with your English. Perhaps we can watch it together.

Best wishes
