- The Institute employs teachers with practical experience who use effective teaching methods that motivate most of the learners.

Recommendations

In order to improve, Al Awael Learning Institute should:

- ensure that learners' better master the basic competencies, and make sufficient progress relative to their level when joining a course
- improve the assessment mechanisms to ensure that:
  - the assessment tools are appropriately scheduled, balanced and well managed
  - the assessment tools are rigorous
  - the mechanisms used to measure learners' progress are implemented consistently and accurately
  - the outcomes of assessments are used for lesson planning and accommodation of learners' varying needs
- enhance learners' support and guidance policy and procedures, including those relevant to learners with special needs, to be more detailed and ensure that they are implemented systematically to achieve better results
- strengthening the leadership and management by:
  - following up and monitoring the implementation of the strategic and operational plans continuously and effectively
  - improving the internal quality assurance arrangements to monitor teachers' overall performance, and assessments' verification and moderation processes continuously and effectively
  - enhancing the premises and providing a conducive learning environment and better facilities.
