Review Summary

- The training at the TUV SUD Middle East Training Centre is delivered in a safe and fit-for-purpose learning environment facilitated by experienced and qualified trainers.
- Trainers provide vocational examples and a relevant range of training and assessment for learning strategies which have supported most learners in achieving their qualifications, considering that most of the conducted programmes are of very short duration.
- The leadership and management team still needs to develop a regular, comprehensive and rigorous self-assessment process to inform decision-making and improvements to the internal quality assurance arrangements and monitor the Centre's performance, including learners' achievements.
- TUV SUD has judged 'Satisfactory' in Aspect 1: Assessment and Learners' Achievement, and in Aspect 2: Learners' Engagement and Support for Learning and judged 'Inadequate' in Aspect 3: Leadership and Management. The Centre will develop an action plan based on the review recommendations to further enhance its performance.
