Review Summary

- The school is a safe learning environment where the majority of students adhere to school rules and regulations, receive appropriate personal support and feel safe.
- The school monitors aspects related to student discipline and their participation in extra-curricular activities. The school also seeks to open communication channels with parents.
- The school needs to focus on teachers' professional development programmes and monitors their performance in lessons to raise students' academic achievement and support their progress, particularly the low achieving.
- The school will draft an Action Plan based on the review recommendations and will be scheduled for a Monitoring Visit.
